Safety Awareness Time

It's been a busy summer so far. Many shops are on double shifts and on over time. It is easy to over look precautions that keep us out of danger. Accidents can happen even quicker when we are hustling to get jobs out the door.

Take a moment and look around to see if there are potential hazards waiting to happen. They are usually very easy to spot. Spills on the floor, boxes piled up blocking exits and views, empty pallets on the floor, fans with bare wires or loose guards, etc. Are the fire extinguishers freshly filled and at easy access?

Safety should be everyone's responsibility. It makes for a better place to work and ultimately more productive.

Tech Tip: Every one loves cup holders. Attach a cup holder (a 14 oz. metal can works great for this) at or near your press at waist height to hold the can of spray adhesive that usually gets set on top of the dryer. This will save time when spraying is needed and help avoid a potential fire or explosion.
